ABOUT THE EXCURSION

Seize this opportunity to enjoy island sightseeing with a complete circumnavigation of Grand Turk. This 7.5-mile-long island is filled with culture and an unforgettable rustic charm. Step aboard a tram destined for five of the most interesting stops on the island.

Cruising along Duke Street, listening to soft calypso music, you will see the island's old Bermudian-style homes. Panoramic views include powder-like beaches and the stunning Caribbean Sea, little changed since Christopher Columbus sailed past in the 15th century. This is the site of the 17th-century buccaneers, who used Grand Turk as a bolthole between raids on passing ships.

Stop in Cockburn town to browse for souvenirs and taste some mouthwatering island dishes (at your own expense).

Back on the tram, you're accompanied by picturesque views as you head towards the northern tip of the island and the Grand Turk Light. Contemporary and traditional homes, views of the neighboring islands, and the famous and friendly Grand Turk donkeys are the attractions.

Headed south, you will see some salt ponds that date back to the 16th century and have a chance to take photos here. Then, crossing the eastern side of the island, you will find yourself back at the cruise terminal.

Notes:

Wear comfortable walking shoes. Shade is limited; to avoid sunburn, wear light, long clothing suitable for use as a cover-up. Bring a hat and sunglasses; wear biodegradable sunscreen. Bring bottled water.
