RESORT INFORMATION

The Grandview at Las Vegas is your very own oasis in the desert and the perfect place to stay and play. Guests can lounge on the large sundeck by one of the five heated pools, exercise in one of the two fitness centers, or play some video games in the arcade. The Grandview is a family-oriented resort adjacent to the South Point Casino, which has several restaurants, a movie theater, and a bowling alley.

UNIT DETAILS

Decorated in a desert sunset motif, The Grandview at Las Vegas has one-bedroom units that sleep up to four guests and two-bedroom units that sleep up to eight. All accommodations feature full kitchens with refrigerators, ranges, dishwashers, microwaves, and a washer and dryer.

DESTINATION HIGHLIGHT

In addition to the exhilarating casino action and world-class dining, Las Vegas offers a wealth of entertainment opportunities designed to dazzle you and your family. Take a thrill ride on the Big Shot - the Stratosphere's thrilling 180-feet free-fall ride. Watch Cirque du Soleil or take in a magic show. Take a walk along Fremont Street, which is the second most famous street in the Las Vegas metropolitan area after the Las Vegas Strip. Visit Madame Tussaud's Celebrity Encounter, M&M World and the Liberace Museum. Nature lovers can also hike in scenic Red Rock Canyon, take a riverboat cruise on Lake Mead and learn about the Hoover Dam. In the winter months you can even ski on Mt. Charleston or tee off at one of the many nearby golf courses year-round.

HOW TO GET THERE

The Grandview at Las Vegas is located 6 miles from Harry Reid International Airport (LAS). From the Airport, take Paradise Road South to I-215 West. Follow I-215 West and exit at Las Vegas Blvd. South. Go 4 miles on Las Vegas Blvd South to the resort, which sits on the right (West) side of the road. The resort is located just seven miles South of the action on the famous Las Vegas Boulevard. A car is recommended to fully enjoy the area.

For additional information on Resort Features and Standard Unit Amenities, please visit www.RCI.com.

- 1. Payment for your vacation: If your payment is declined by your financial institution, RCI may cancel this vacation.
- 2. Late check-in: you must notify the resort in advance if you anticipate a late arrival. Failure to notify the resort could result in forfeiture of the unit and/or other penalties.
- 3. Transferring a vacation: this confirmation is transferable only with an RCI guest certificate. The RCI member who has received this confirmed vacation is the only individual who may request a guest certificate and only for personal non-commercial use. The imposition of any fee or charge by a member for providing a guest certificate or vacation confirmation is strictly prohibited. RCI has the right to revoke the guest certificate and the underlying vacation confirmation if any of the terms and conditions of RCI subscribing membership are breached.
- 4. Cancelling a vacation: should your plans change, please notify RCI immediately.

Cancellation of your reservation may result in the loss of the monies paid for the reservation depending on the cancellation date. Additional restrictions may apply.

5. Unit assignments: The resort will assign your unit at check-in. If your reservation spans a weekend or standard check-in day, you may be required to change units.

6. Fees and assessment: when you utilize the RCI system, you warrant that you have paid, or will pay when due, all maintenance fees and other assessments with respect to the vacation time you own at your resort.

7. Additional Resort Fees: Some resorts may impose additional fees and taxes at check-in or check-out, which may include, but are not limited to, mandatory all-inclusive fees, usage fees and housekeeping fees. RCI has no control over these fees and taxes, which are subject to change by the resort without notice. If the resort requires a mandatory all-inclusive fee, then such fee, depending on the resort and season, may cover meals, drinks, tours, transportation, resort activities, resort amenities, services and facilities and is required to be prepaid at or before check-in. If the resort makes available an optional all-inclusive package for an additional fee, then such fee, depending on resort and season, may cover meals, drinks, tours, transportation, resort activities, resort amenities, services and facilities. You may not be able to purchase food or drink at the resort if you choose not to pay the optional fee. Fees, terms and conditions of packages covered by an all-inclusive fee are determined solely by the resort, and are subject to change at any time.

Comment Card Survey: RCI is committed to reducing paper and preserving the environment. Comment cards are going paperless. Surveys will be emailed when you return from your vacation. So that we can continue to receive your valuable feedback, please provide us with your current email address. A printable version can be obtained via RCI.com/help/fees and forms or by contacting Customer Service during normal business hours.

For complete details of the terms and conditions of RCI subscribing membership, including RCI's cancellation policy contact an RCI guide or go online at www.rci.com. RCI guides can be reached during normal operating hours.
